Privacy Notice How We Use Visitor Information

This Privacy Notice for visitors explains how and why we store personal information about those who visit the school. It provides a guide to our legal obligations and their own rights. Like any organisation which handles personal data, our school is the 'Data Controller' as such, we are registered with the ICO (Information Commissioner's Office) and we comply with UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

Why We Collect and Use Visitor Information

We use visitor data to:

- Ensure the safeguarding of young people and vulnerable adults
- Maintain high standards of health and safety

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the legal basis / bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

(6c) A Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for us to comply with the law.

(6e) Public task: the processing is necessary for us to perform a task in the public interest or for our official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.

The lawful bases for processing personal data are set out in Article 6 of the UK General Data Protection Regulation.

Storing Visitor Information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please see our Data Protection Policy.

Who we share Visitor Information With

We do not share visitor information with third parties unless we are legally required to do so.

Requesting Access to Your Personal Data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact school@st-johns-bromsgrove.worcs.sch.uk

Depending on the lawful basis above, you may also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing

- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- a right to seek redress, either through the ICO, or through the courts

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact our Data Protection Officer which is SchoolPro TLC Ltd via GDPR@schoolpro.uk. You can also contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
