Making sense of beliefs
I can key beliefs studied for Muslim ways of living in Britain today •	s metaphor, simile and analogy to help describe the different aspects of God uddha led to his teachings (dhamma) •	ean by talking about God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, using evidence from several Bible texts explain the place and role	of the prophets in the Bible compare and explain diffe	rent ways to happiness (e.g. Christian, Buddhist and non-religious)
Understanding the impac	t
I can
show how beliefs and tead	chings guide Muslims in responding to the challenges of life in Britain today show how Christian worsh	ip reflects Christian beliefs in Jesus as God incarnate show how Buddhist teach	ings guide them in making moral decisions (e.g. non-violence, vegetarianism) give examples of how the	Christian community respond to the idea of God as Trinity. For example, in expressing ideas about Go	d through art, symbols and services discuss what a modern da	y prophet might do and say with examples, evidence and argument show how beliefs and tead	chings can affect people's views on whether or not it is important to achieve happiness
Making connections
I can
give an account of the cha	llenges and opportunities of being a Muslim teenager in Britain today offering reasons for my responses discuss how the world tod	ay could benefit from a saviour, offering my own reasons and justifying my responses
evaluate how far the ideas	s of the Buddhist dhamma help students of Buddhism make sense of the world and their own experience evaluate my learning and	express a view: Why do Christians worship God as Trinity and what difference does belief in God as Trini	ty make to them? offer a view as to whether	the modern world needs prophets, who they might be, and how students themselves might respond	to them offer an account on the va	lue of happiness as the purpose in life, weighing up religious and non-religious views including my own
